

Home Learning Project

Autumn 1

Make a model of a Tudor house.

Original Tudor houses were made from timber beams with wattle and daub. There was often an overhanging upper storey or 'jetty', which was bigger than the ground level and the windows were small as glass was expensive.

You may use any materials to construct, build and decorate your model.

Due: Monday 4th November 2024